"The Oaks at Boca Raton's highly desirable setting is a perfect match for Standard Pacific Homes' land acquisition strategy, which focuses on building exceptional communities in premier locations," said South Florida Division President for Standard Pacific Homes, Dan Grosswald. "We look forward to offering elegant new home designs that match the caliber of this scenic community."

With average prices in the $900,000s, Standard Pacific Homes will showcase all-new home designs that feature large-scale open spaces and thoughtful details designed for the way people live today. One notable feature is the highly-appointed gourmet kitchen that flows into an expansive Great Room, an ideal space for entertaining and everyday life. These homes will also feature luxurious master suites with spa-like master baths and other design elements suited for the upscale Boca Raton lifestyle.

Boasting a beautifully designed clubhouse, the community offers a country club lifestyle with an emphasis on leisure, culture, athletics and family-friendly social events. The clubhouse features a resort-size swimming pool and cabana area plus a 12-court tennis center managed by professional staff. The Oaks at Boca Raton is just west of Boca Raton proper which allows residents immediate access to the many dining and shopping options available in the city.
