

Standard Pacific Homes Offers Eight New Home Designs Just Minutes From Downtown Phoenix

The Enclave at Blossom Hills blends luxurious designs and a top notch location

PHOENIX, May 9, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Standard Pacific Homes, one of the nation's leaders in homebuilding quality, announced today the Grand Opening of The Enclave at Blossom Hills, a brand new collection of impressive residences situated just minutes from downtown Phoenix. The neighborhood offers eight stunning home designs that cater to the needs of today's most discerning home shoppers. Two model homes will debut at this weekend's Grand Opening celebration. Doors open at 10:00 a.m.

"Understanding that our homeowners crave a backdrop for in-home entertaining, we've designed these homes with sweeping entertainment areas both indoors and out," said Pat Moroney, Phoenix President of Standard Pacific Homes. "We've taken special care to incorporate thoughtful design details into the homes that speak to the level of luxury that this outstanding location provides residents."

The one- and two-story floor plans feature the latest concepts in residential architecture. High-vaulted ceilings and the array, as well as the substantial set of windows framing the covered outdoor living area create an airy ambiance and a sense of connectivity throughout the home. One of the floor plans features a portico entrance that leads to an interior courtyard. The entry foyer is flanked by an oversized den and dining room.

Gourmet kitchens that feature oversized radius islands, state-of-the-art appliances and large walk in pantries meld into open Great Rooms to create an engaging space for hosting family and friends. The floor plans feature flexible living options so that homeowners can personalize the home to meet the needs of their families. Options include a front casita, an office or even a puppy wash station. The homes also offer spa-like master baths that feature luxurious soaking tubs, oversized showers and private dressing areas.

Priced from the $400,000s, the estate-sized residences within The Enclave at Blossom Hills range from approximately 2,900 to 4,350 square feet and contain up to five bedrooms and four and one-half baths. The exterior styles of the homes embody the flavors of the Southwest offering Hacienda Ranch, Spanish Colonial and European Cottage elevations.

The new community sits at the base of South Mountain Park. Spanning more than 16,000 acres, it's one of the nation's largest municipal parks and offers 51 miles of hiking, biking and equestrian trails that wind through habitat native to the area, including the majestic saguaro cactus. The park provides a quiet escape and breathtaking views of the valley and downtown Phoenix. Residents will also enjoy the fact that Sky Harbor International Airport, downtown Tempe and downtown Phoenix are just short drives away, with all of the conveniences, entertainment, dining and sporting venues that they have to offer.

To experience the casual luxury of a Standard Pacific home tour the new model homes at this weekend's Grand Opening event. The sales center is located at 3009 East Valencia Dr., Phoenix, AZ 85042. For additional details and directions visit standardpacifichomes.com
