ESCONDIDO, Calif., Jan. 29, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Lennar, the nation's leading homebuilder, is now selling its highly sought-after Next Gen® - The Home Within A Home® floorplan at Harmony Grove Village. Since its inception in 2011, the Next Gen® floorplan has offered a solution to address the rising trend of multigenerational households. Home shoppers in search of the ideal home to accommodate multigenerational or dual living needs can now take advantage of several options at Whittingham and Winchester situated in San Diego County's popular Harmony Grove Village.

"We've seen many different family types benefit from living in multigenerational homes. These families really love and value being able to see one another every day," said Bill Ostrem, San Diego Division President for Lennar San Diego.
